

Ashcraft, Herbert Curtis 1919 - 2006

www.findagrave.com

Herbert Curtis Ashcraft Born in Rural, Kentucky on Jun. 6, 1919 Departed on Aug. 3, 2006 and resided in Beverly Hills, MI. Resident of Beverly Hills, MI since 1952, formerly of Birmingham. Herbert attended school in a one room school house while growing up in Kentucky. He was a WWII veteran ~ United States Army Company E 141st Infantry 36th Division. Herbert was the owner of Hi-Way Collision in Birmingham form 1948 to 2005. He was a Mason, a long time donor to the Salvation Army and an avid and lucky card player. He also loved to read and was a big fan of the Detroit Tigers. A devoted family man, Herbert was concerned about the care and education of his family. Husband of Martha. Father of Herbert Curtis Ashcraft, Jr., Gary (Joan) and William Dale Ashcraft (Laurie). Brother of Mary Gibson, Goldie Huber and Delphia Ashcraft. Also survived by 8 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

