

Winchester Sun – December 27, 1992

MAE ROWLAND ASHCRAFT

Mae Rowland Ashcraft, 80, of 2446 Ford-Hampton Road, widow of Fred Ashcraft, died at 5:15 p.m. Saturday at the Clark Regional Medical Center.

A native of Franklin, Ohio, she was the daughter of the late Jasper and Nora Lynch Rowland and a member of the Ford Holiness Church.

Survivors include three daughters, Donna Sue Abney, Ford, and Judy Wagoner and Betty Parks, Clark County; a son, Lonnie S. Ashcraft, Ford; three brothers, Harless Rowland, Richmond; Harvey Rowland, Hamilton, Ohio, and Willard Rowland, Greensburg, Ind.; three sisters, Verna Price and Clara Hoke, Hamilton, Ohio, and Callie Robinson, St. Petersburg, Fla., and nine grandchildren.

Services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Ford Holiness Church by Roscoe Collins and Tommy Schooler. Burial will be in the Macedonia Cemetery, McKee.

Pallbearers will be Carl Wayne Ashcraft, Gerald Skaggs Jr., Harless Farthing, Joe McCleave, Richard Sexton and Jeff Cole; honorary, Dr. Charles Noss.

Friends may call 5-9 p.m. today at the Scobee Funeral Home.