

Hamilton Journal News – November 2, 2007

ASHER, Marvin Taylor, Jr.

Marvin Taylor Asher, Jr., also known as PaPa and uncle Marv, age 66 of Ross Township, passed away suddenly

Wednesday, October 31, 2007 at Mercy Hospital of Fairfield. He was born on June 15, 1941 in Hamilton, Ohio the son of Marvin Asher, Sr. and Esther Amy (Arnold) Asher. Marvin was a loving and devoted husband to his wife of 38 years Andrea Lee (Arvin) Asher. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife, Andrea, three sons, Curtis (Becky) Asher of Hamilton, Ronald (Tricia) Asher of Millville and Jody (Becca) Asher of Oxford. He leaves three precious grandchildren whom he loved dearly. Aron Taylor Asher, Grace Allison Asher and Mason Scott Asher, one sister Wanah Bowling. He will be dearly missed by sister and brother-in-laws Diana and John "Bill" Snader and Jennifer and Dallis Scenters. Uncle Marv will also be sadly missed by ten nieces and nephews, Olan, Chris, Robbie, Billy, Stephanie, Jeff, Stacey, Cathy, Joey, Jenny and twelve great nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents, one very special sister-in-law Alice Robinson, one brother-in-law Allen Arvin, and one nephew Michael Arvin. Marvin was an avid NASCAR fan and music lover. Funeral services will be held Monday 10:30 a.m. at Charles C. Young Funeral Home, 4032 Hamilton-Cleves Rd., Ross, Ohio. Visitation will be Sunday 2 - 5 p.m. Burial will be in Rose Hill Burial Park, Hamilton, Ohio