

The Irvine Times – Herald – September 1, 1961

HUSTON INGRAM, 86, IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Huston Ingram, 86, Irvine Route 1, a retired car repairman for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Co., died at 9:25 A. M. Saturday at Gibson Hospital, Richmond, after a long illness. He was a member of the South Irvine Christian Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Louise Ingram; two daughters, Mrs. Dalsy Richardson, Hamilton, Ohio, and Mrs. Lille Tipton, Ravenna; four sons, Miriel Ingram, Irvine Route 1; Shade Ingram, Mt. Sterling; James Ingram, Felicity, Ohio, and Willard Ingram, South Irvine; a brother, S. M. Ingram, South Irvine; 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:00 P. M. Monday at the South Irvine Christian church by the Rev. Thomas Estes. Burial was in the Roberts Cemetery in charge of Cox Funeral Home.