

Citizen Voice & Times – February 25, 1971

Mrs. Ingram Dies At 91

Mrs. Louisa Durbin Ingram, 91, of South Irvine, died at 10:30 a.m. Monday at the Estill County Hospital after a long illness. She was a native of Estill County and a member of the South Irvine Pentecostal Church of God.

Survivors are: three sons, Jim Ingram, Felicity, Ohio; Shade Ingram, Mt. Sterling, and Willard Ingram, South Irvine; two daughters, Mrs. Lillie Tipton, Lexington, and Mrs. Daisy Richardson, Hamilton, Ohio; one sister, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Ingram, South Irvine; 13 grandchildren; 29 great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. at the South Irvine Pentecostal Church with Rev. Paul Arvin officiating. Burial was in the South Irvine Cemetery in charge of Lewis Funeral Home.