

Estill County Citizen Voice & Times - September 27, 1957

A. F. (BERT) MASTERS SUCCUMBS IN RAVENNA

FUNERAL RITES FOR RETIRED
MERCHANT TO BE HELD
FRIDAY 2 P. M.

A. F. (Bert) Masters, 73, died on Wednesday afternoon at his home in Ravenna. He had been an invalid the past three years after suffering a paralytic stroke. A retired merchant, he was a native of Irvine, a son of the late William and Elizabeth Witt Masters. He was a member of the Ravenna Christian Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Stella Goe Masters; three daughters, Mrs. Howard Mackoy, Ravenna; Mrs. Bobby Hester and Mrs. Dale Holbrook, Lexington; three sons, Halmire Masters, Waco; Billy Masters, Lexington, and A.F. (Bert) Masters, Jr., San Antonio, Texas; four sisters, Mrs. F. H. Gould, Cedar Grove; Mrs. James Kelley, Louisville; Mrs. Stella Richardson and Mrs. Alma Shockey, Bloomington, Ill., and ten grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held on Friday (today) at 2:00 P. M. at the Ravenna Christian Church conducted by Rev. Charles W. Riggs. Burial will be in West Irvine Cemetery in charge of Cox Funeral Home. Pallbearers: Burnam Masters, Jennings Thomas, Clarence Vitilow, Gordon Sparks, Charles T. Murrell, Sr., Earl Rhodes, Clarence L. Williams and Price Whitaker.