

Bayer, Nicholas 1954 - 2007

The Evening Leader – August 16, 2007

Nicholas Bayer, 54, of 20511 Shadyside Way, Germantown, Md., died Monday, Aug. 13, 2007, at Georgetown University Hospital, Washington, D.C.

He was born Dec. 14, 1953, in St. Marys, a son of Marvin of Dorothy (Peters) Bayer, and they survive in St. Marys.

He is survived by two brothers, Michael (Barbara) Bayer of Washington D.C., Thomas (Briana) Bayer of Leesburg, Va.; a sister, Nancy (Bob) Jacobs of Warrenton, Va., and their families, and many devoted and loving cousins.

He graduated from St. Marys Memorial High School in 1971, and earned an undergraduate degree from the Ohio State University and a Masters degree from the University of Maryland. He worked as an accountant in the financial department at the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) in Germantown, Md. Through his dedication and hard work his branch often received the highest evaluations.

He will be remembered for his wry sense of humor, his unfailing courtesy to others and his total devotion to and affection for his immediate and extended family.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, at Holy Rosary Catholic Church in St. Marys, with the Rev. Anthony Cutcher officiating.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that memorial donations be made to the St. Marys Public Library or to the Holy Rosary School Fund.

Arrangements are being handled by Miller Funeral Home, 1605 Celina Road, St. Marys.

Condolences may be conveyed via millerfuneralhomes.net.