

Hamilton Journal - June 21, 1965

Dr. H. T. Derivan, Middletown, Dies

Dr. Hubert T. Derivan, 66, 119 Eaton Dr., Middletown, prominent Middletown dentist, well-known in Hamilton, died Sunday in Middletown Hospital. He had been ill for the last five months.

Dr. Derivan was born on Dec. 27, 1898, in New Vienna, Ohio. He was graduate of New Vienna High School and of the Ohio State University College of Dentistry. He had practiced dentistry in Middletown for forty years, and was a past president of the Keely Dental Society.

A person of great integrity, he was held in high esteem. Kindly, interested in people, he had a wide circle of friends. He was a devoted husband and father, and although active in many affairs, his family and home were his prime interest always.

A member of Holy Trinity Catholic Church and of the Holy Name Society of that church, he was also a member of the Knights of Columbus and the American Legion.

Members Of Family

Dr. Derivan married Cecilia E. Pater, of Hamilton, and she survives him. He also leaves a son, H. T. Derivan Jr., a grandson, a sister, Miss Mary Derivan, Columbus; three brothers, Joseph Derivan, Columbus, Harry Derivan, Ridge Manor, Fla., and John Derivan, Nashville, Tenn.

Funeral services will be held from the Schramm Funeral Home, Clark St., Middletown, on Wednesday morning with a Requiem Mass at 10:30 a. m. in Holy Trinity Church. The Rev. Giles Pater, a nephew of Mrs. Derivan, will officiate.

Pallbearers will be John Molloy, Paul Cain, Edmund O'Leary, Edward Brown, Robert Krebs, Edgar Schellenbach, Louis Kenney and Raymond Kelly.

There will be visitation in the funeral home from 3 to 5 and from 7 to 9 p. m. on Tuesday.