

Hamilton Journal News – December 28, 1975

Carl Barnhorn

Services for Carl H. Barnhorn, 81, 626 Woodlawn Ave., who died Friday at 5:15 p.m. in Mercy Hospital, will be Monday at 9:30 a.m. in the Colligan Funeral Home, 437 S. Third St.

Mass of Christian Burial at 10 a.m. in St. Ann Church.

Burial in St. Stephen Cemetery.

Visitation Monday 9 a.m. until services.

Born in Covington, Ky., he was a son of Herman C. and Elizabeth Billerman Barnhorn. He was educated in St. Joseph parochial school.

In 1923 with his brother Stanley Barnhorn, Mr. Barnhorn opened a grocery store at the corner of Woodlawn and Logan Ave. in the Lindenwald area. He was active in the grocery business for 45 years before retiring.

In 1921 he married Marie Zang in St. Stephen Church.

He was a life-member of Knights of Columbus Father Butler Council 968, and he was a member of St. Ann Church and the Holy Name Society of that parish.

Survivors include his wife, Marie Barnhorn, Hamilton; two sons, Donald Barnhorn and Robert Barnhorn, Hamilton; daughter, Roselyn A. Fortner, Fairfield; seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren; two brothers, Elmer Barnhorn and Stanley Barnhorn, Hamilton.