

Fedders, Aloysius H 1912 - 2001

Kentucky Post (Internet) – June 26, 2001

Aloysius Fedders, 88, hard-working family man

Aloysius H. Fedders managed to juggle work, family and community service into a life that garnered him many friends and much respect.

His daughter, Rosemary Fedders Stein of Fort Thomas, said she remembers her father working hard to develop his business while maintaining his sense of humor.

"My earliest memories are growing up and wanting to be like my dad," Mrs. Stein said.

"He was the kindest, funniest, most hard-working man in the world. He had a quiet and deep faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Mr. Fedders, 88, of Fort Wright, died at 10:35 p.m. Saturday at St. Charles Care Center in Covington.

He was owner of Al H. Fedders Refrigeration Co. and a former employee of C. Rice Packing Co., Blue Grass Provision Co. and Serve-All Co., all of Covington.

He was a member of St. Agnes Church, Fort Wright, and the Covington Lions Club. He was a past president of the South Hills Civic Club and was a leader in the development of the Bluegrass Swim Club, both in Fort Wright. His wife, Mary Margaret Schmidt Fedders, died in May 2000.

Mr. Fedders was a native of Northern Kentucky who spent most of his life in Fort Wright and Crescent Springs.

He enjoyed rooting for the Cincinnati Reds, his daughter said.

"I felt like everyone liked my dad. He was a kind and generous man," Mrs. Stein said.

Besides his daughter, Mr. Fedders is survived by a son, John M. Fedders of Washington, D.C.; brothers, Camillus Fedders of Crescent Springs and Henry Fedders of Florence; a sister, Sister Barbara Fedders, C.D.P. of Melbourne; six grandsons and one great-granddaughter.

Memorial Mass of Christian burial will be at 11:30 a.m. Wednesday at St. Agnes Church. A reception in the church hall will follow the Mass. Mr. Fedders bequeathed his body to the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. Memorials are suggested to St. Charles Care Center, 500 Farrell Drive, Covington, Ky. 41011; or the charity of the donor's choice.