

Kentucky Post - November 28, 1957

George W. Hopple

Services for George W. Hopple, 69, of 162 Latonia Terrace, Covington, who died Wednesday at his home, will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday at Connelly Brothers funeral home, Latonia.

Mr. Hopple was track superintendent at the old Latonia Race Track when the oval closed its gates to racing in 1939. A lifelong resident of northern Kentucky, he was a retired guard for the Latonia Refinery.

He leaves his widow, Loretta; a daughter, Mrs. Charles Swain, and a son, Charles Hopple, both of Covington; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Forest Horins, Toledo, O., and Mrs. Fred Klare, Covington; a stepson, John Creighton, Covington; three sisters, Mrs. Mable Walker, New Castle, Ky., and Mrs. George Duvall and Mrs. Etta Holzclaw, both of Covington; a brother, Robert Hopple, Covington, and 19 grandchildren.

Burial will be in Highland Cemetery. Friends may call after 3 p. m. Friday at the funeral home.