

Martin, Florence Casnellie 1904 - 1996

Kentucky Post – January 23, 1996

Florence Casnellie Martin,
91, of Highland Heights, died at
11:49 a.m. Sunday at St. Luke

Hospital East. She was a homemaker and a member of the Cincinnati Art Museum, the Republican Women's Club, the Catholic Women's Club and the Friends of the Cincinnati Opera. She also had written Braille for blind people. Her husband, William Martin, died in 1976.

Survivors include daughters, Joan Gissinger of Yorba Linda, Calif., and Sister Viola Martin C.D.P. of Melbourne; a brother, Arthur Casnellie of Amelia, Ohio; seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Mass of Christian burial will be at 7 p.m. Thursday at Holy Cross Church, Latonia. Visitation will be from 3 to 6:30 p.m. Thursday at Swindler and Currin Funeral Home, Latonia. Committal services will be at 11 a.m. Friday in Mother of God Cemetery Chapel, Ft. Wright. Memorials are suggested to the Sisters of Divine Providence, St. Anne Convent, Melbourne, 41059, or to Lakeside Place Nursing Home, Highland Heights.

