

Kentucky Post – March, 25, 1993

James Thomas Martin, 57, of Ft. Mitchell, died Tuesday in Cincinnati. He was a retired commercial artist for Gimbels and Mays Furrer department stores in New York City.

Survivors include his mother, Florence Casnellie Martin of Highland Heights; a brother, Kenneth W. Martin of Tampa, and sisters, Mary Joan Gissinger of Yorba Linda, Calif., and Sister Viola E. Martin, C.D.P., of Melbourne.

A memorial Mass of Christian burial will be at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Cathedral Basilica of the Assumption, Covington. Linne-mann Funeral Home, Erlanger, is in charge of arrangements. Burial will be at 11 a.m. Monday in Highland Cemetery, Ft. Mitchell. Memorials are suggested to AIDS Volunteers Of Cincinnati.