

Kentucky Post – November 13, 2004

John Joseph McCormack, 87, of Fort Wright, died Thursday at St. Elizabeth Medical Center South, Edgewood. He was a self-employed manufacturer's representative, formerly an employee of Cincinnati Milacron. He was a member of St. Agnes Church in Fort Wright, where he was on the parish council. He was a former Fort Wright mayor and city councilman, an assistant chief of the Fort Wright Fire Department and a member of the Kenton County Police Merit Board. He was a past president of the Summit Hills Country Club.

John McCormack Survivors include his wife, Norma H. McCormack; daughters, Sue Shumate of Villa Hills, Eileen Callis of Erlanger, Sister Mary Norene McCormack, S.N.D., of Covington, Sally Rodau of Scottsdale, Ariz., and Becky Brown of Hammond, La.; sons, Michael McCormack of Independence and Daniel McCormack of Walton; a brother, Thomas McCormack of Covington; sisters, Pat Keeney of Fort Wright, Kathleen Peter of Cincinnati and Sister Rosemary McCormack, O.S.B., of Morehead; 23 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

Mass of Christian burial will be at 7:30 p.m. Monday at St. Agnes Church. Visitation will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Monday at the church. Burial will be in St. Mary Cemetery, Fort Mitchell. Memorials are suggested to Prince of Peace School, 625 Pike St., Covington, Ky. 41011. Linnemann Funeral Home, Erlanger, is handling the arrangements.