

The Post & Times Star - November 11, 1967

Mr. Moeller, Operator Of Latonia Cafe

Richard G. Moeller

Richard G. Moeller, 53, of 3117 Latonia avenue, Covington, died at 1 a. m. Friday in Veterans Hospital, Cincinnati. He had been a patient three days.

He was owner and operator of Grandstand Cafe, 35th street and Latonia avenue.

Mr. Moeller was a Navy veteran of World War II.

Surviving are his wife, Esther Lamb Moeller; two daughters, Pattie Ann and Robin Rae, at home; three sons, Jeffrey Lynn, at home; Erlanger, and Carl, Downey, Robert, Devon, Ky., and Richard, California.

Services will be at 1 p. m. Monday at Connley Bros. Funeral Home, Latonia.

MOELLER

Richard G., beloved husband of Ester Moeller (nee Lamb), dear father of Pattie Ann, Robin Rae, Jeffrey Lynn, Robert, Richard, and Mrs. Judith Moeller; dear brother of Mrs. Beatrice Struetker, Paul and Carl Moeller; also five grandchildren; Friday, Nov. 10, 1967; residence, 3117 Latonia av., Covington, Ky.; age, 53 years. Services Monday, November 13, at Connley Bros. Funeral Home, 11 E. Southern av., Latonia, at 1 p. m. Visitation Sunday, 11 till 9 p. m.