

Kentucky Enquirer – March 20, 2009

Donald W. Streutker

VILLA HILLS – Donald W. “Don” Streutker, 80, died Wednesday, March 18, at St. Elizabeth Hospice in Edgewood.

He performed maintenance work for Comp-Care; drove a truck for Kay’s Laundry and Home Laundry in

Streutker

Covington and Unesco in Cincinnati, a previous assistant at Bethel Guardian for Jobs Daughters Bethel #6, a member of Teamsters Local #100, Covington Lodge #109 F&AM, Henry Barnes Lodge #607 F&AM and a deacon, elder and member of First Christian Church in Covington.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Jane Griffin Streutker of Villa Hills; sons, Skipper Streutker of Villa Hills and Duane Streutker of Covington; daughter, Pamela Bray of Villa Hills; brother, Charles Streutker of Alexandria; sister, Shirley A. Perkins of Brooksville; four grandchildren and five great-grandchildren

Visitation is 4-8 p.m. with a Masonic service at 7:45 p.m., today, March 20, at Allison & Rose Funeral Home in Covington. Services are 11 a.m. Saturday, March 21, at First Christian Church in Covington. Burial will be in Highland Cemetery in Fort Mitchell.

Memorials: First Christian Church, 14 West Fifth St., Covington, KY 41011-1402, or American Lung Association of Southwest Ohio, 5050 Executive Park Drive, Sharonville, OH 45241

Online condolences:
www.allisonrosefuneralhome.com