Emily Heving-Simms, avid golfer

Emily "Emmie" Heving-Simms golfed for about 40 years, picking up numerous trophies along the way.

Mrs. Heving-Simms, of Ft. Mitchell, was a former member of Summit Hills Country Club, a club golf champion and a Kentucky Colonel.

"She loved to golf, and she loved to watch it on TV," said her daughter, Evelyn Hussey of Ft. Mitchell.

She died at 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Woodspoint Nursing Home in Florence. Her husband, Alvin Simms, died in 1964.

She formerly worked as a rate clerk for Dixie Ohio Express, a trucking firm.

"She was always helping people and helping my children," her daughter said. "She was a very nice person."

She also enjoyed gardening, crocheting and knitting, her daughter said.

Other survivors include a sister, Mary Holton of Covington; six grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Services will be private at Middendorf-Bullock Funeral Home, Covington. There will be no visitation. Burial will be in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Erlanger.
