'JUST FELL OVER'

Dies Preparing For Communion

Miss Katherine Hussey, pretty 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hussey of Villa Hills, died yesterday at St. Elizabeth Hospital where she had been a week.

"Katherine was combing her hair getting ready to take Holy Communion when she just fell over," her older sister, Mrs. Patricia Shaeffer, Winston Park, said.

The teen-ager was pronounced dead at 6:50 a. m. by a staff physician.

Had Operation

Katherine entered the hospital a month ago for an appendectomy operation. Two weeks later she was sent home to recover.

"She was home a few days when she became ill again and was taken back to the hospital," Mrs. Shaeffer said.

"Her appendix had ruptured and infection set in after the operation."

Mrs. Shaeffer said tests would be made to determine exact cause of death.

Active in Dramatics

A 1966 graduate of Notre Dame Academy, Park Hills.

Katherine had been quite active in dramatics appearing in the Christmas and cast plays.

She was on the Prom and Sweetheart Ball" committees at the school.

A business major in high school, she worked for Sentry Insurance Co., Cincinnati as a loss clerk following graduation.

She left her job in May because of a kidney ailment.

"Katherine was waiting for her 19th birthday so she could take air stewardess training," her sister said.

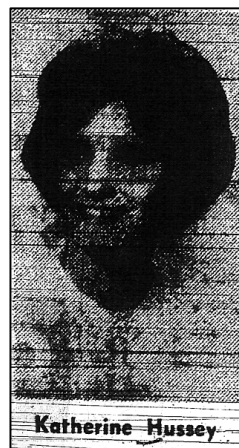

"That's what she wanted as a career."

The Hussey family resides at 759 Roger road. Hussey operates the Shamrock Cafe, Fifth street, Covington.

In addition to her parents and sister, she is survived by two other sisters, Ruth and Mary Jo and three brothers, James, Robert, and Michael, all at home.

Also her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Katherine Hussey, Ft. Thomas, and her maternal grandparents, Mrs. Emily Simms, Ft. Wright, and Joseph Heving, Covington.

Requiem High Mass will be sung at 9 a. m. Saturday at St. Joseph Church, Crescent Springs, following prayers at Middendorf Funeral Home, 917 Main street, Covington.
