

Kentucky Post - March 24, 1982

Dorothea Kemphaus ran senior citizens center

Dorothea "Dottie" Kemphaus, 72, original director of the Northern Kentucky Senior Citizens Center, Covington, died at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Medical Center-South, Edgewood, after an 18-month illness.

Mrs. Kemphaus operated the senior citizens center for 11 years. Later she served as recreation director for pre-school children at the Protestant Children's Home.

A lifelong resident of Erlanger, she was a member at St. Henry Church, Elsmere.

Her home was at 3319 Hulbert Ave., Erlanger.

Survivors: widower, Ralph Kemphaus Sr., retired employee of the Department of Economic Security for Kentucky; son, Ralph Kemphaus Jr., Groesbeck, Ohio, former basketball coach at Holy Cross High School, Latonia; daughter, Janis Broering, Ft. Thomas; sister, Ruth Wolking, Erlanger; brothers, Frank J. Wolking, Louisville, and two grandchildren.

Services pending, Linnemann, Erlanger.