

Pulskamp, Mary Elizabeth Ryan 1912 - 1993

Cincinnati Post – July 22, 1993

Mary Elizabeth Ryan Pulskamp , of Covington, died at 2:55 a.m. Wednesday at St. Elizabeth Medical Center South. She retired in the early 1970s as a teacher for the Cincinnati public school system. She also formerly taught in the Covington school system. She was a graduate of the former Villa-Madonna-College, now Thomas More, and was past president of the Alumni Association. She was the first woman to receive the Thomas More Medallion. She was active in the state and national level of the International Federation of Catholic Alumni. She was an active member of Mother of God Church and had been a member of the parish council. She was also a member of the Covington Art Club.
	Mary E. Pulskamp