

Barber, Ida Bell Fuller 1911 - 1990

Lexington Herald Leader – May 27, 1990

BARBER

Ida Bell Barber, 78, 1511 Versailles Rd., died Saturday at Good Samaritan Hospital. She was the wife of the late James A. Barber and a daughter of the late Thomas Jefferson Fuller. A native of Fayette Co., she was a member of Hillcrest Baptist Church and a retired salesperson for Wolf Wiles. She is survived by her mother, Mary Elizabeth Mullins Fuller, Lexington; a daughter, Peggy Florence and son-in-law, Bill Florence, Georgetown; one sister, Margaret Ruth, Danville; three brothers Julian Fullers, Lexington, Ussery Fuller, Covington, and Edward Fuller, Nicholasville; five grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be 11:30 a.m. Tues. at Kerr Brothers Funeral Home by Pastor Pierce Dodson. Burial is in Lexington Cemetery. Bearers will be nephews. Friends may call 3-9 p.m. Mon. Memorials are suggested to Hospice of the Bluegrass, 1105 Nicholasville Rd., 40503.

