

Fuller, Albert Gragg 1905 - 1996

Lexington Herald Leader – December 8, 1996

Albert Gragg Fuller, 90, 2000 S. Main St., Paris, retired Engineer for the F&C Railroad, widower of Maudie Ransdell Fuller, died Sat. He was born in Fayette County, son of the late Jefferson & Martha Sears Fuller and was a member and Deacon Emeritus of the Old Union Christian Church. He is survived by a son & daughter-in-law, Jeff "J.C." & Mary Evelyn Fuller, Fayette Co.; 2 grandsons, Jeffrey Fuller & wife Cathy, of Lex., Steven Fuller & wife Annette, of Paris; 4 great-grandchildren, Jenny & Brian Fuller, of Lex., Justin and Kevin Fuller, of Paris; sister-in-law, Mary Fuller, Stamping Ground, and several nieces & nephews. Funeral Services will be 10:30 a.m. Tues. at the Hinton-Turner Funeral Home by Revs. Scott & Susan Winkler and Rev. Marshall Fraley. Pallbearers will be Eugene Campbell, Allen Carr, John Carr, John Ginn, Bobby Scott, and Everett Calvert. Honorary pallbearers will be the Elders, Deacons, & Deaconesses of the Old Union Christian Church. Visitation 5-8 p.m. Mon. Memorials suggested to Hospice of the Bluegrass, 508 E. Pike St., Cynthiana, KY 41031 or Bourbon Heights Activity Dept., 2000 S. Main St., Paris, KY 40361

