

Fuller, Julian Milton 1914 - 2008

Lexington Herald Leader – October 3, 2008

FULLER Julian Milton, 94, died Wed, Oct 1, 2008. Born in Bourbon County, he was the son of the late Thomas and Mary Fuller. Julian was predeceased by his loving wife, Edna, of 69 years, Jan 29, 2008. He was a retired truck driver with Dance Freightlines, later becoming Consolidated Freightways. Julian was a member of the Teamsters Local Union #779 and Tates Creek Christian Church. He was a WW II veteran having served his country in the United States Army. In the spring of 2008, Julian had the privilege of being interviewed for the Lexington Public Library's documentary, Our Part: Lexington's Greatest Generation, about his experiences during World War II. He is survived by a daughter, Patty (Ken) Merritt, Lexington; two granddaughters, Pepper and Tanzi Merritt, all of Lexington; a sister, Margaret Ruth, Harrodsburg; a brother, Edward Fuller, Nicholasville. The family would especially like to thank Netta Robertson for the compassionate and diligent care that she gave Julian and Edna during the last several years of their lives. She became a part of our family. Funeral services will be 10am Sat, Oct 4 at Kerr Brothers Funeral Home-Main St. Burial will be in Lexington Cemetery. Visitation will be from 5-8pm Fri. We will miss you Daddy, but know you are waltzing around Heaven with Momma.
