

Lexington Herald Leader – June 5, 1998

FULLER

Robert Horace Fuller, 80, Lexington, widower of Annette Marie Fuller, died Thursday, June 4, 1998 at the Hospice Care Center. A native of Lexington, he was a son of the late Robert Victor and Dora Mae Harp Fuller. He retired from the Armour and Company after 34 years of service. Survivors include five daughters and sons-in-law, Carolyn and Hubert Locklear, Lumberton, NC, Jacqueline and Cloyd Morgan, Connie and Darrel McKinney and Norma Jean Fuller, all of Lexington, and Patricia Fuller and Randy Wilcher, Lancaster; two sons and daughters-in-law, Robert Wayne and Sandy Fuller, Ft. Lauderdale, FL, and Clyde David and Bess Fuller, Mt. Sterling; 24 grandchildren; 27 great-grandchildren; two brothers, David Paul Brown, Lexington, and Billy Fuller, MD; and a sister, Delores Shannon, Lexington. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Mary Lou Fuller, and a sister, Dorothy Arnold. Funeral services will be 1 p.m. Saturday at Kerr Brothers Funeral Home by Brother Bobby Lakes. Burial will be in Wilmore Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Martin Bishop, Darren Morgan, Randall Morgan, Kenny Sammons, James Sammons and Chester Leach. Friends may call from 5 to 9 p.m. today.