

Hall, Madeline Hays 1914 - 2009

The Post and Courier – Charleston – August 2009

Madeline Hays Hall CHARLESTON - Madeline Hays Hall, of Charleston, passed away on August 30, 2009, at Hospice of Charleston, SC. Born June 14, 1914, in Knott County, Kentucky, to the late J.D. and Martha Hays. Ms. Hall attended Hindman Settlement School in Kentucky. Madeline's life-long ambition was to study and learn as much about the Bible as she possibly could. She also mastered her skills as a librarian through her extensive travels and school experiences. She settled in Charleston in 1962, where she remained for the rest of her life. Survived by a sister, Elsie H. Black of Orlando, FL; and a brother, Harmon N. Hays of Barnwell, SC. She had no children of her own but had 29 nieces and nephews that she claimed as her own children. She attended school in Knott County, Jackson, KY, Columbia, SC, New Orleans and Lexington, KY, to study the Bible and perfect her skills as a librarian. She worked in Jackson, Hazard Berea, Emmine, Louisville, Fort Knox, KY, and Charleston, SC. The family will receive friends on Monday, August 31, 2009, from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m., at CAROLINA MEMORIAL FUNERAL HOME, 7113 Rivers Avenue, North Charleston, SC. Ms. Hall's funeral will be held on Tuesday, September 1, 2009, at 11:00 a.m., at Carolina Memorial Funeral Home Chapel. Burial to follow in Carolina Memorial Park.
