

Department of Health, City of Covington.
BUREAU OF VITAL STATISTICS.
No. _____	Report of a BIRTH, attended by _____
Signature F. W. Fisher, M.D.
Date July 22nd 1910	Address 1120 Madison Ave.
Name of Child Earl Joseph Kampsen
Sex Male
Color or Race White
Date of Birth July 27th 1910
Place of Birth 1505 Karamygh St
Name of Father Frank Kampsen
Father's Residence 1505 Karamygh St
Father's Birthplace Germany
Father's Occupation Carpenter
Name of Mother Lina Kampsen
Mother's Residence 1505 Karamygh St
Mother's Birthplace Germany
REMARKS: 14/75	117
	455

Kentucky Post - January 3, 1983

Earl J. Kampsen, lost races for Covington commission

Earl J. Kampsen, who ran unsuccessfully for the Covington city commission in 1980 and again in 1971, died at 3:35 a.m. Saturday.

Kampsen, 72, formerly of 356 E. 16 St., Covington, died at the Baptist Nursing Home, Newport.

A dock foreman for 34 years Railway Express, Kampsen was a Democrat who ran for the city commission because he cared about what happened to the community, said his widow, Marion.

"He always cared about the children of the city, and he wanted for them to have some place to play," she said.

Kampsen was past president, Brotherhood of Railway Clerks; former chairman, Covington Housing Board; member, East End Civic Club; Holy Name Society, and St. Benedict Church, Covington.

Other survivors: son, Thomas Kampsen, Covington; daughters, Elsie Sand, Shawnee Mission, Kan.; Donna Marsh, Sheriffs

Ford, N. C.; Linda Anneken, Burlington; brother, Ralph Kampsen, Villa Hills; sisters, Esther Bell, Covington; Ruth Covington, Ft. Wright; 17 grandchildren, one great-grandchild.

Mass of Christian Burial, 11 a.m. Tuesday, St. Benedict Church, Covington; prayers, 10:30 a.m., Linnemann Funeral Home, Covington; visitation, 9:30-10:30 a.m. Tuesday, funeral home; Burial, Mother-of-God Cemetery, Covington. Memorials suggested to charity of choice.

