

Kentucky Post & Times Star - October 4, 1963

Howard Woltenberg

Howard G. Woltenberg, 54, chauffeur for Kentucky Livery Corp., Covington, was found dead at 9:30 p. m. Thursday at his home, 522 W. 13th street, Covington.

A son, Michael, resident of the same address, found the body. Dr. Edward L. Smith, Kenton County Coroner, attributed the death to natural causes.

Other survivors include two more sons, Army Pfc. Jack Woltenberg, Ft. Carson, Colo., and Richard W., Covington. His wife, Marie, died in 1957.

Requiem High Mass will be sung at 9 a. m. Monday at St. John Church, Covington, following prayers at the Middelorf Funeral Home, 917 Main street, Covington. Burial will be in St. John Cemetery, Ft. Mitchell.