Anniversary Date Chosen For Wedding

THE WEDDING of Miss Louise Thome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thome, Cincinnati, and Paul Arthus Leland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leland, Cecelia avenue, Park Hills, which was performed at 8:30 a. m. Saturday at the St. Patrick Church, marked the silver wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's parents.

Attending the couple were Miss Martha Saalfeld, maid-of-honor, Miss Dorothy Fisse, bridesmaid, and Ray Thome, brother of the bride, best man.

A breakfast and dinner were to follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, and a reception will be held this evening at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The couple will depart for a bridal trip through the Smoky Mountain region, and upon their return will live at 3915 Glenn avenue, Latonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leland, who is the former Clara Schef-fer, were married 25 years ago Saturday at the Mother of God Church.

Kids on Iowa Avenue Plan Polio Carnival

Children of Iowa avenue, Covington, have been quietly working for a week to complete plans for a neighborhood carnival Thursday night to benefit the Kenton county polio fund.

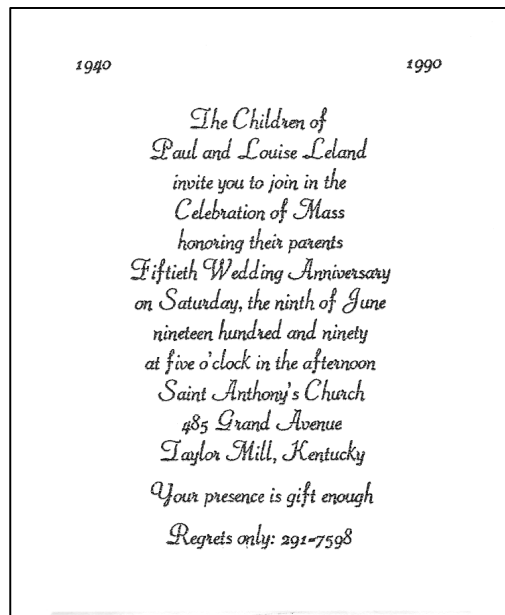

Ten youngsters, 5 to 12, have collected groceries from parents and neighbors to use for basket awards. Mothers will bake cakes and provide refreshments.

The children, who have sold tickets for the street affair, have collected and donated their own toys for the fish pond. All of the work for the event has been done by the children on their own.

Taking part in sponsoring the affair are Barbara Leland, 11; Carol Leland, 9; Connie Stadelmann, 12; Beverly Ann Holian, 8; Patsy Holian, 5; Sheila McCabe, 9; Donne Sexton, 10; Ronnie Ehme, 12; Jean Eckler, 10, and Joan Eckler, 12.
