

Lux, Leland Peter 'Jerry' 1916 - 2005

Indianapolis Star – June 19, 2005

L.P. "Jerry" Lux 89, Arlington, TX, a devoted husband, father, and grandfather, peacefully left this earth to be with his maker on Thursday June 16, 2005. Funeral Mass: 10 a.m. Monday June 20, 2005, at St. Maria Goretti Catholic Church, 1200 S. Davis Drive, Arlington, TX. Rosary: 7p.m. Sunday at the church. Burial: Moore Memorial Gardens. Jerry was born Jan. 20, 1916 in Shelby County, IN. He was an Air Force Major with the 38th bomb group. He was a veteran of World War II, having piloted a B-25 bomber in the Pacific Theater. A long time resident of Arlington, Jerry was a member of St. Maria Goretti and the Knights and Ladies of the Holy Sepulcher. He was also a member of the Knights of Columbus and Serra Club. He loved to sing harmony and was a charter member the Arlington Chapter Good Times Chorus, where he was honored to serve several terms as president. He joined Rolling Hills Country Club in 1961, where he enjoyed playing golf and watching his children swim. He was awarded "salesman of the year" many times throughout his career. Survivors: wife of 62 years Mary C. Lux of Arlington; son, Dr. Nicholas Lux and wife, Lori of Dallas; daughter, Teresa Richardson and husband, Roy of Arlington; son Dr. Christopher Lux and wife, Dalene, of Texarkana; daughter Mary Ann Lux of Arlington; sister Bette Lux of Shelby County, IN.; and six grandchildren