

Cynthiana Democrat – February 7, 1963

Joseph E. Biancke

Joseph E. Biancke, 47, manager and co-owner of Biancke's Restaurant, died at 1:30 p.m. February 2 at Harrison Memorial Hospital after three months' illness. He had resided at 415 East Pike Street.

Born August 31, 1915, in Harrison County, he was a son of Joseph D. Biancke of Cynthiana and the late Stella Clifford Biancke.

He was a member of the Cynthiana Christian Church, the B.P. O. E. No. 438, Cynthiana Business Men's Club and the Lion's Club.

~~He was~~ He was survived by his wife, Mrs. Sara Robinson Biancke; two sons, John E. Biancke and Joseph D. Biancke, both at home; a brother, Harry G. Biancke, Cynthiana.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at Smith-Rees Chapel by Reverends Benjamin H. Moore and Clement Ritter. Burial was in Battle Grove Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Hugh Ewalt, Dr. M. S. Foster, Robert Carroll, C. B. Slade, Pete Shirley and Floyd Russell.

Honorary pallbearers were William M. McKee, Garnett Bell, Jack Thomson, Richard E. Coe, Garnett Rees, Leonard Mullin, James Collier and Joe Cummins.