

Covington, Gladys E Duncan 1915 - 2010

Georgetown News Graphic – January 18, 2010

Gladys Duncan Covington, went to be with the Lord, Thursday, Jan. 14, 2010. Born to the late Grover and Delia Johnson Duncan on April 6, 1915, in Scott County where she was a lifelong resident and member of Dry Run Baptist Church. She was a devoted wife to her late husband, Lewis Covington and beloved mother of Betty (Ted) Griggs, Judy Franklin, Billy (Janet) Covington, Joyce Ann (Arthur) Rader, all of Georgetown, Linda (Don) Givens of Berea, and the late Delia Marie Covington.

Survivors in addition to her children include her grandchildren, John (Kathy) Griggs, of Tampa, Fla., Matthew (Kelly) Griggs, of Morehead, Scott (Mikka) Franklin, of Winchester, Chad (Angela) Franklin, of Carrollton, Kelly Dean House, of Nashville, Tina Covington Gaccino (Dom), of Peekskill, N.Y., Brad (Carrie) Covington, of Lexington, and Brandon and Michelle Rader, of Georgetown; 14 great-grandchildren; two stepgrandchildren, Brandon (Kim) Givens and Justin (Tara) Givens, of Louisville; and a special caregiver, Rose Shelton.

Visitation will be 5-8 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 17, 2010, at Tucker, Yocum & Wilson Funeral Home. Funeral service will be 11 a.m., Monday, Jan. 18, 2010, at the funeral home. Burial will follow at Georgetown Cemetery with grandsons serving as pallbearers.

