

The Cynthiana Democrat – August 13, 1992

Lois Taylor Dennis, 66

Lois Taylor Dennis, 66, a resident of 100 Shawnee Drive, Cynthiana, Ky., died Thursday, Aug. 6, 1992, at Harrison Memorial Hospital. Born in Harrison County to the late William and Vilette Turner Taylor, she was a homemaker, a member of the Covenant Presbyterian Church, and an active member of the Harrison County Senior Citizens Program.

Survivors include: two sons, Thomas E. Taylor, Cynthiana, and James W. Dennis, Paris; two daughters, Deborah Dennis Lutes and Sharon Dennis Fowler, both of Cynthiana; three sisters, Betty Taylor McKim, Oakton, Va.; Nancy Taylor Williams and Marietta Taylor Mattox, both of Cynthiana; seven grandchildren, James W. Dennis Jr., Daniel H. Dennis, Kellar T. Dennis, Stephanie Lutes Techau, Andrea and Melissa Snapp, and Eddie W. Lutes; four great-grandchildren, Kensi, Taylor and Ashlyn Techau; and Jessica Rose. Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Monday at Ware Funeral Home by the Rev. Stan Johnson. Burial was in Battle Grove Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Jay Dennis, Danny Dennis, Kelly Dennis, David Mattox Jr., Paul Mattox, Wayne Mattox, Jerry Johnson.

Honorary pallbearers were: Walter Hatterick, James Martin, Rob Roy Norton, Jack Hannah and Herbert England.