

Georgetown News & Times – October 31, 1990

Duncan

Porter Collins Duncan, 70, Georgetown, retired Veterans Administration Hospital employee, owner of the Convenient Food Mart #144, Paris Pike, and husband of Dorothy Tackett Duncan, died Sat. Oct. 27 at the VA Hospital, Lexington. A native of Scott County, he was the son of the late Grover and Delta Johnson Duncan, and was a veteran of WWII. He was a member of the Dry Run Baptist Church, and the Thoroughbred Post 7054, VFW. Other survivors include two sons, Porter A. and Donald W. Duncan, both of Georgetown; five grandchildren, Jonathan, Jason, Kim and Shelle Duncan, all of Georgetown and Dean Duncan, Frankfort; two great-grandchildren, Derrick Cains and Bryan Duncan, Georgetown; four sisters, Gladys Covington, Flora Bell Kidwell, Dorothy Sargent and Audrey Mae Duncan, all of Georgetown; and two brothers, Joe Harvey Duncan, Columbus, Ohio, and Lester Duncan, Georgetown. He was preceded in death by a son, Dennis L. Duncan, a sister, Beatrice Wainscott, and a brother, Jesse Clayton Duncan. Funeral services were 1:30 p.m. Tue. at Johnson's Funeral Home by Rev. Sam Glenn. Burial was in Crest Lawn Memorial Gardens. Casketbearers were David, Mike and Jerry M. Duncan, Marion and Dorsey Sargent, Billy Covington, Gary Wainscott and Freeman Thompson. Honorary bearers were Tom Sturgill, William Shelly, Clay Zumwalt, Bobby Burton, Lewis Covington, Randolph Mulberry, Jimmy Vance, Norvel Sargent, Edwin Ward, Terry Scott, Owen B. Clark, and the vendors of Convenient Food Mart