

Georgetown News-Graphic – May 3, 2000

Fannie Pullen Glass

Fannie Pullen Glass, 81, South Broadway, Georgetown, died Saturday, April 29, 2000, at St. Joseph Hospital, Lexington. She was the wife of Tolbert A. Glass.

A native of Scott County, she was the daughter of the late Thomas Stewart and Lilly Mae Woolums Pullen, and was a member of the First Church of God, Fordland Drive.

Survivors include two daughters and sons-in-law, Betty and Billy Dalzell, of Georgetown, and Judy and Wayne Lanter, of Versailles; two sons and daughters-in-law, Larry and Linda Glass, of Cincinnati, and Danny and Ginger Glass, of Georgetown; a sister, Opehlia Spurgeon, of Amelia, Ohio; nine grandchildren, Rick and Kathie Dalzell, Tina and Perry Johnston, Jeff and Regina Lanter, Missie and Jeff Lewis, Brian, Darren and Dannette Glass, Christina and Kevin Rich and Laura Glass; and 12 great-grandchildren, Eric, Katie, Sara and Maggie Dalzell, Keith Lancaster, Josh and Jacob Vance, Abbey Lanter, Shawn, Stefan, Coty and Dayne T. Lewis.

Funeral services were at 2 p.m., Tuesday, May 2, 2000, at Johnson's Funeral Home by Pastor Gary Eden.

Burial was in Crestlawn Memorial Gardens.

Mrs. Glass' grandsons served as casket bearers.

Honorary bearers were Jim Mann, Charlie Rudd, Nolan, Estill and Barry Glass, Joe Emmons, David Burke, Jack Mullanix, Carl Pullen, Billy Green, Terry Moberly and Billy Cook.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to the First Church of God, 101 Fordland Dr., Georgetown, KY 40324.