

Georgetown News & Times – December 23, 1986

GLASS

Pearlie Johnson Glass, 86, Georgetown, widow of Lewis Glass, died Thursday morning, December 18, at Springhaven Nursing home. A native of Scott County, she was the daughter of the late Joe Lee and Martha Mullins Johnson and was a member of the Salem Methodist Church. Survivors are two daughters, Edna Covington, Georgetown, and Ada Emmons, Sadieville; two sons, Tolbert Glass, Georgetown and Estill Glass, Franklin, Ohio; three step-daughters, Levade Thompson, Ollie Hedges, both of Georgetown and Maxcine McFarland, Sadieville; five sisters, Ella Hanna, Georgetown, Violet Downard, Houston, Texas, Clara Towles, Lexington, Cora Fugett and Eva Havlin, both of Dayton; one brother, Buford Johnson, Georgetown; 11 grandchildren; 26 great-grandchildren; 13 great-great grandchildren. Funeral services were Saturday, December 20, at Porter Christian Church by Rev. Benny Robbins. Burial Porter Cemetery. Casket bearers were Larry, Danny and Barry Glass, Timothy and Ronnie Covington, Mike McNally, Billy Dalzell, Wayne Lanter. Honorary bearers were Jerry, Owen Lee, Otis Gayle, and Wayne Johnson, Porter and Joe Harvey Duncan, Carl Kasson, Bob Emmons, Charles and Nolan Glass, Coy, Billy and Roger Green. Johnson's Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

