

The Cynthiana Democrat – February 3, 1994

Garnett Wayne Henson, 64

Garnett Wayne Henson, 64, a resident of Republican Pike, Cynthiana, Ky., died Friday, Jan. 28, 1994. He was born in Harrison County to Lillie Turner Henson and the late Gilbert Henson, was a retired truck driver and farmer, and a member of the Claysville Christian Church.

Survivors include: his wife, Lucy Hill Henson; his mother, Lillie Belle Turner Henson, Harrison County; two sons, Robert Wayne Henson and David Henson, both of Cynthiana; a foster son, Jeffery Hanlev, Harrison County; two daughters, Vicky Henson Feedback, Cynthiana, and Sherri Henson Harkless, Lexington; two foster daughters, Jeanette Clarkston Gaunce and Mary Ann Cordray, both of Cynthiana; two brothers, Harold Henson, Louisville, and Kenneth Henson, Dayton, Ohio; a sister, Agnes Henson Nash, Maysville; 12 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were conducted Monday, Jan. 31, 1994, at Ware Funeral Home, by the Rev. Clyde Miller, the Rev. John Hampton, and the Rev. Kelly Brandenburg. Burial was in Crest Lawn Memorial Gardens, Georgetown. Memorials may be made to the Claysville Christian Church Building Fund.

Pallbearers were: Dee Whitaker, William Lake, Dwayne Bennett, David Powers, Bill Batte, Jim Lizer, Tom Cordray, Robert Gaunce and Rick Dixon.