

Johnson, Albert Sanford 1915 - 1979

Georgetown News & Times – January 31, 1979

JOHNSON

Albert S. (Jack) Johnson, 63, husband of Dorothy Cook Johnson, Georgetown, died early Friday morning at the U.K. Medical Center, Lexington from injuries sustained Thursday evening when struck by an auto on Main in Georgetown. He was a native of Scott County, son of the late Joe Lee and Martha Mullen Johnson, a retired employee of the Kentucky State Highway Department and member of the Northside Christian Church.

Other survivors include three daughters, Mrs. James Gabhart and Mrs. Bill Toomey both of Lexington; Mrs. Tom Tracy, Georgetown; a son, Lloyd Wayne Johnson, Scott County; ten grandchildren; six sisters, Mrs. Pearlie Glass, Springfield, Ohio; Mrs. Violet Downard, Cincinnati; Mrs. Ella Hanna and Mrs. Clara Towles both of Lexington; Mrs. Cora Fugate, Mrs. Eva Havlin, both of Dayton, Ohio; brother, Buford Clay Johnson, Georgetown; a number of nieces and nephews; and mother of his children, Mrs. Anna L. Hutton Johnson, Scott County.

Funeral services 11 a.m. Monday at the Tucker-Yocum Funeral Home, Georgetown by Rev. George Randolph and Rev. Calvin Smith with burial in Georgetown Cemetery.

Casketbearers: Orville Hanna, Jr., Gayle, Owen Lee and Jerry Johnson, Randy Towles, Estill Glass, Lester and Porter Duncan. Honorary bearers: Frank Pullen, William Bevins, Everett Gifford, Sr., Leon Hamilton, Sr., Bobby Murphy, Bob and Joe Emmons.

