

Lexington Herald Leader – February 17, 1989

MARSHALL

Carl Thomas Marshall, 68, husband of Martha Sue Arnold Marshall, of 1819 Clays Mill Rd., died at his residence Wed. He was a retired service manager of Bluegrass Truck and also retired from Lexington Mack Truck. Born in Harrison Co., son of the late Everett W. and Annabelle Reed Marshall, member of Knights Templar, a Kentucky Colonel, former member of the Masonic Lodge and the Oleika Shrine, served in the Army during WW II in the European Theatre, received five Bronze Stars, and a certificate for Meritorious Action. Other survivors a daughter, Carol Sharp and son-in-law, Bob Sharp, Lexington; two grandchildren, Susan and Laura Sharp; two brothers, James R. Marshall, Lexington, and Calvin W. Marshall, Dayton, OH; and step-mother, Elizabeth Marshall, Lexington. Services 1:30 p.m. Sat. at the W.R. Milward Mortuary-Broadway conducted by Dr. T.O. Harrison. Burial in Battle Grove Cemetery, Battle Grove, Indiana. Casketbearers will be Bob Sharp, Carlos Laytart, Gerald Fitzpatrick, Daryl Herrington, John M. Herrington, and Todd Wiese. Friends may call today from 3-5 and 7-9 p.m. Memorials to the Oncology Unit, Good Samaritan Hospital, or Hospice of the Bluegrass.