

Georgetown News & Times – March 1, 1988

MCFARLAND

Maxine Pullen McFarland, 66, Porter Road, Sadieville, wife of R.D. McFarland died Saturday, Feb. 27, at Central Baptist Hospital. A native of Scott County, she was the daughter of the late Robert Franklin and Luttie Stuart Pullen and was a member of the Salem Methodist Church. Other survivors are a daughter, Jean Teegarden; a son, Jimmy McFarland, both of Scott County; two sisters, Leavada Kelly Thompson and Mrs. Ollie Hedges, both of Georgetown; two step-sisters, Ada Emmons and Edna Covington, both of Scott County; two step-brothers, Tolbert Glass, Georgetown, and Estill Glass, Franklin, Ohio; four grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services are 1:30 p.m. today at Salem Methodist Church by the Rev. Elwood Norton and the Rev. Edwin Willis. Burial in Crest Lawn Memorial Gardens. Casket-bearers will be Randy Teegarden, Wayne Ishmael, Norris Stacy, James Walker Lee, Nolan Glass, and George Stubbs. Honorary bearers are Randy Marshall, Lewis McFarland, Danny Glass, Sidney Walker, Greg Stubbs, Bob Emmons and Bobby Ray Crupper. Friends may call this afternoon at the church.