

The Lincoln Ledger – January 4, 1995

Luttie M. L. Morris

Luttie Magdalene Lawson Morris, 83, formerly of Moreland, died Dec. 24 at Meadow Brook Nursing Home in Montgomery, Ohio.

Born Aug. 22, 1911, in Lincoln County, she was the daughter of the late Burgess and Susan Mullins Lawson. She was a homemaker and a member of the Moreland United Methodist Church. She was the widow of Joseph Sherman Morris.

Survivors include three sons, Edwin, Floyd, and Lester Morris, all of Cincinnati, Ohio; one daughter, Donna Travers of Hollis, New Hampshire; one adopted daughter, Christine Lawson of Cincinnati, Ohio; two brothers, Clayton Lawson of Taylorsville and Marcus Lawson of Liberty; one sister, Lena Sandidge of Moreland; five grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Services were held Dec. 28 at W.L. Pruitt Funeral Home by the Rev. Wayne Watts. Burial was in Moreland Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Larry, Hank, and David Lawson, Jim and Buddy Morris, and Dale Smith.

Memorials may be made to the American Diabetes Foundation and to the American Lung Association.