

The Cynthiana Democrat - June 26, 1969

ATWELL L. MULLEN

Atwell L. Mullen, 68, of 213 N. Walnut St., died June 20, at 5:30 p.m. at Harrison Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

He was born Jan. 7, 1901 in Harrison County and was the son of James and Jennie Lawson Mullen. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ruby Charles of Cynthiana and Mrs. Jewell Brumfield Jr. of Lexington, and one son, James L. Mullen, of Berry; two brothers, Claud Mullen, Albany, Ind. and Raleigh Mullen of Lexington; one sister, Mrs. Joe Wickline, Hawthorne, Calif. There are nine surviving grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Mullen was a member of the Lower Curry Methodist Church and the Oddfellows Lodge. Rev. M. H. Richardson conducted the services at the Smith-Rees Funeral Home, June 23.

Bearers were Marshall T. Mullen, William R. Mullen, Henry Lemons, Stanley Lemons, Orie Lemons, and Carlos Lemons. Burial was in Battle Grove Cemetery. Oddfellow Services were at 8 p.m. Sunday.