

Mullen, Byron C 1939 - 1985

Lexington Herald Leader – June 16, 1985

MULLEN

Byron C. Mullen, 46, husband of Mrs. Barbara Eaves Mullen, of 733 Wellington Way, died Friday evening at the Good Samaritan Hospital. He was a computer programmer analyst with the Lexington Blue Grass Army Depot, MRSA. Born in Fayette County, he was a son of Mrs. Beulah F. Farmer Mullen, Lima, OH and the late Rolla C. Mullen, and was a member of Porter Memorial Baptist Church. Other survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Harrell (Karen Lee) King and Mrs. Donald (Kimberly Marie) Stone, both of Lexington; one brother, Jerry W. Mullen, Lima, OH; two grandchildren, Ashlee King and Shawn King, both of Lexington. Funeral services 3 p.m. Monday at the W.R. Milward Mortuary-Southland conducted by Rev. James K. Pierce. Burial Hillcrest Memorial Park. Casketbearers will be Kenneth Eaves, Rondal Sallee, Bill Darragh, Ken Goad, Stanley Morris and Calvin Powell. Honorary bearers, Carl Webb, Charles Hughes, Joe Neal, Chilton Neal, Bill Rieser, John Bruckner and Nathan Williams. Friends may call 2-5 p.m. today. Contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, 500 New Circle Road, N.W., Lexington 40505.

