

Cynthiana Democrat – January 22, 1987

Ruth Whiteker Mullin, 70

Ruth Whiteker Mullin, 70, a resident of 600 Sherwood Drive, Cynthiana, Ky., died on Tuesday, Jan. 13, 1987, at the Saint Joseph Hospital after an illness of several months. She was the daughter of the late Joe Desha and Mollie Arnold Whiteker.

She was a member of the Sunrise Christian Church, a member of the Prudence Whiteker Baptist Women's Circle, a graduate of Sunrise High School, a member of the Sunrise Homemakers and the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 27.

Survivors include: her husband, Carlos H. Mullin; one sister, Mrs. Joella Bramel, Cynthiana; three brothers: Louis R. Whiteker, Lexington, Keevil Whiteker, Cynthiana; and Mack D. Whiteker, Lexington; several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p.m. on Friday at the Whaley-McCarty Funeral Home by the Rev. Tom Lipscombe and the Rev. Paul Tirey. Burial was in Battle Grove Cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Louis, Keevil, Mack, Desha and Gregg Whiteker, Joe Harper and Carlos Mullin.