

Nash, Agnes E Henson Poe 1932 - 2007

The Ledger-Independent – May 9, 2007

MAYSVILLE -- Mrs. Agnes Henson Poe Nash, 75, of Eastern Hills Subdivision, Lewisburg, died Tuesday, May 8, 2007 at her residence.

Mrs. Nash was the widow of Frank Nash. She was born in Harrison County, on April 22, 1932, the daughter of the late Gilbert and Lillie Turner Henson.

She was an LPN for 25 years and had been employed at Hayswood Hospital and upon retirement at Meadowview Regional Medical Center. She was a charter member of the Maysville Church of Christ, the Willing Worker's Ladies group of the Maysville Church of Christ and the Mason County Homemakers.

She is survived by two sons, Steve Poe (Elisa) of Modesto, Calif., and Tony Poe (Laurie) of Maysville; three daughters, Diana L. French (David) of May's Lick, Karen Pugh of Fernleaf and Sandy Faris (Greg) of Ewing; two step-daughters, Cheryl Ellis (Dennis) of Hurricane, W. Va. and Patti Parks (Tony) of El Paso, Texas; nine grandchildren, Zack Poe, Kelsey Poe, David Wayne French, Michele Bellamy, Missy Kennedy, Mindy Pugh, Amber Jackson-Faris, Alivia Faris and Jonathan Faris; six great-grandchildren, Tyler French, Christopher French, Brittenee French, Isaac Kennedy, Colin Kennedy and Bret Bellamy; two brothers, Kenneth Henson of Huber Heights, Ohio, and Harold Henson (Lavoe) of Louisville; and several neces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by one brother, Garnett Henson; and two sons-in-law, Larry Pugh and Timothy Graham Jackson.

Services for Agnes Nash will be 1 p.m., Friday, May 11, 2007, at Maysville Church of Christ with Evangelist Wayne Kaser officiating.

Burial will be in Hillcrest Garden of Memories. Pallbearers will be David Wayne French, Jeff Bellamy, Zack Poe, Tyler French, Toby Lapp and Mitch Kennedy.

Honorary Pallbearers will be Roy Doyle, Calvin Bailey and Christopher French.

Visitation will be 6-8 p.m., today at Knox and Brothers Funeral Home.