

Georgetown Graphic – April 29, 1982

LONG ILLNESS
TAKES FRANK PULLEN

Frank Pullen, 82, of Showalter Drive, died at John Graves Ford Memorial Hospital Tuesday after a long illness.

He was a retired car salesman for Bevins Motor Company. A native of Woodford County, he was a son of the late Thomas S. Pullen and Lillie Mae Woolums and a member of Salem Methodist Church.

Surviving are his widow, Ruth Kaufman Pullen; three daughters, Mrs. Leavada Kelly Thompson, Mrs. Ollie Hedges and Mrs. Maxine McFarland, all of Scott County; two brothers, Carl Pullen, Georgetown, and Winfred Pullen, Frankfort; four sisters, Mrs. Fannie Glass, Georgetown, Mrs. Athelia Spurgeon, Cincinnati, and Mrs. Mary Robinson and Mrs. Molly Littleton, both of Lexington; six grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; and a great-great-grandchild.

Services will be at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at Johnson Funeral Home by Rev. Elwood Norton and Onis Kays, with burial at Crest Lawn Memorial Gardens.

Pallbearers will be: Harold and Randy Teegarden, Mike Cravens, Jimmy McFarland, C. W. True and Rolan Glass.

Honorary pallbearers will be: Harold Brandenburg, Carrick James, William Bevins, J.B. Wright, Willie Scott and Tolbert Glass.

Visitation will be today from 3 to 9 p.m.