

Georgetown News-Graphic – December 23, 1995

Buddy Southworth

Buddy Gene Southworth, 62, of Georgetown, retired IBM employee and Scott County School Systems bus driver, died Tuesday, Dec. 19, 1995 at his home after a long illness.

A native of the Long Lick area of Scott County, he was the son of the late Joel Burdin and Lillian Alsop Southworth and was a lifelong member of the Long Lick Baptist Church, where he served as church secretary for 45 years and trustee and groundskeeper for 30 years.

Survivors include his wife, Priscilla (Sissy) Walters Southworth; a son, Troy Southworth; a daughter, Jennifer Stone, both of Georgetown; three sisters, Jewell Moody, Georgetown, Mary Baldwin and Wanda Offutt, both of Stamping Ground; four brothers, Charles Southworth, Stamping Ground, J.B. Southworth Jr., Georgetown, Carlos W. Southworth, Versailles, and Joe R. Southworth, Lexington. A brother, James E. Southworth, preceded him in death.

Services were held Friday, Dec. 22, 1995 at Johnson's Funeral Home by Rev. Lowell Coots and Bro. Glenn Redmon. Burial was in Georgetown Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Marion and Dwight Offutt, Bobby Wasson, Therley Reed, Steve and Billy Southworth, Joel Moody and Charlie Long.

Honorary bearers were David McDowell, Randy Southworth, Douglas Walters, James R. Williamson, Larry Pulliam and Jimmy Baldwin.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to the American Cancer Society.

