

Georgetown News & Times – June 18, 1981

WAINSCOTT

Beatrice Duncan Wainscott, 51, died Sunday evening at Central Baptist Hospital after a brief illness. She was the widow of James Wainscott, daughter of the late Grover and Delia Johnson Duncan, member of the Gano Avenue Baptist Church and was a beautician. Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Dennis (Doralene) Zumwalt; one son, Gary Wainscott; four grandchildren, Justin and Erin Zumwalt, Shannon and James J. Wainscott, all of Georgetown; four sisters, Mrs. Flora Kidwell, Mrs. Lewis (Gladys) Covington, Mrs. Norvel (Dorothy) Sargent, and Miss Audrey Duncan, all of Georgetown; four brothers, Joe H. Duncan, Columbus, Ohio, Jesse Clayton Duncan, Porter Duncan and Lester Duncan, all of Georgetown; twelve nieces and nine nephews. Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Tucker-Yocum Funeral Home, Georgetown, with burial in the Georgetown Cemetery. Casket bearers were Norvel Marion Sargent, Freeman Thompson, Dorsie Lee Sargent, Billy Covington, Donnie, Porter Allen, Mike, David and Jerry Martin Duncan. Honorary bearers, Grover Karsner, Roy G. Johnson, Robert Teegarden, Lewis Covington, Norvel Sargent, Omer Humphrey, Dr. Sudhideb Mukherjee, James N. and James Ray Gillespie.

