

Georgetown Graphic - December 17, 1987

WALTERS

Clyde Desha Walters, 55, Dale Drive, Georgetown, a Hearing Officer for the Kentucky Division of Drivers Licenses, Frankfort, died Tuesday at his home after a short illness.

A native of Scott County, he was the son of the late William Mike and Bessie Ransdell Walters and was a member of the Great Crossings Baptist Church. He was also a Retired Master Sgt. of the US

He is survived by Teresa Garrison Walters; three daughters, Mona D. Durbin, Rising Sun, IN, Marsha D. Tubbs, Nicholasville, Jamie L. Romans, Georgetown; two sons, Michael T. Humphrey, Lexington, Jay W. Mers, Nicholasville; four sisters, Mrs. Gladys Whitlock, Sadieville, Mrs. Bertha Smith, Stamping Ground, Mrs. Florence McKenney, Mrs. Pearl Wells, both of Lexington; six brothers, Everett, Bill, Charley and Henry Walters, all of Georgetown, Alvin Walters, Brighton, MI, Jack Walters, Charleston, WV; six grandchildren, Heather L. Humphrey, Nashville, TN, Michael B. Humphrey, Lexington, Scott A. and Mark A. Durbin Jr., both of Rising Sun, IN, Adam P. Tubbs, Nicholasville, Latosha M. Romans, Georgetown. A daughter, Yvonne M. Walters, preceded her father in death.

Funeral services are at 11 a.m. today at Johnson's Funeral Home with Full Military Honors conducted by Rev. Mike Young. Burial will be in Blue Grass Memorial Gardens, Jessamine County.