

Cynthiana Democrat - October 25, 1956

Clarence Monroe Whalen

Clarence Monroe Whalen, 86, retired farmer, died at 3:45 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 11, 1956, at a local nursing home after a three-week illness. He was a member of the Mt. Pleasant Methodist Church.

He was born in Harrison County, May 19, 1870, son of the late George and Anna Kearns Whalen. His wife, Mrs. Dean Turner Whalen, died June 4, 1944.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Aline Stewart, Covington; Mrs. James Cummins, Louisville; Mrs. Frances Jennens, Cynthiana; Mrs. Lucille Solomon, ~~and Mrs. Elgin Crump, Bourbon County~~; three sons, Garnett Whalen, Florence; Rev. Clarence Whalen, Hagerstown, Md., and Thaddeus Whalen, Newport; 16 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday morning at Smith-Rees Chapel by Rev. R. D. Grubbs. Burial was in Battle Grove Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Gerald Whalen, Malcolm Stewart, Garnett Whalen Jr., Harry Huff, Charles Courtney and Billy Crump.