

Williams, Nancy Taylor 1923 - 2006

The Cynthiana Democrat – February 20, 2006

Nancy Taylor Williams, 82

Nancy Taylor Williams, 82, Charlotte Drive, died Friday, Feb. 17, 2006, at her residence.

Born in Cynthiana, Aug. 30, 1923, to the late William W. and Vilette Turner Taylor, she retired as former co-owner of Rees Williams Jewelry Store and was a Charter Member of Covenant Presbyterian Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband Rees Williams; two sisters, Lois Dennis and Betty McKim and a brother William G. Taylor.

Survivors include: two step-daughters, Arlene Williams Young, Cynthiana, and Patricia Williams Jones, Greenwood, S.C.; a sister, Marietta Mattox, Cynthiana; eight grandchildren, Susan Turner, Laura Hehr, Rees Jones, Jim Young, John Stanley "Bubba" Jones,

David Young, Julianna Smith and Pat Collins; fourteen great-grandchildren, Betsy, Caroline and Abbey Hehr, Garrett, Brady and

Trent Jones, James, Steven and Anna Young, Anna Blythe Jones, Jacqueline Young, Griffin and Peyton Smith and Courtney Collins;

three nieces, Charlotte Belcher, Debbie Lutes and Sharon Fowler and six nephews, Thomas E. Taylor, James Dennis, Robert McKim, David Mattox Jr. Paul Mattox and Wayne Mattox.

Funeral services will be conducted 10 a.m. Monday, Feb. 20, at Ware Funeral Home by the Rev. David Sabella and Father Mike Williams. Visitation will be from 5-8 p.m. Sunday. Burial will be in Battle Grove Cemetery.

Pallbearers will be Jim Young, David Young, John Stanley "Bubba" Jones, Rees Jones, Kelly Hehr, Eric Smith, Wayne Turner and Bruce Collins IV.

Memorial contributions are suggested to the Covenant Presbyterian Church Youth Program, 504 E. Bridge Street, Cynthiana, KY 41031 or Hospice of the Bluegrass.